PARISH MISSION

The mission will start tomorrow, Monday 10 October. It is a wonderful opportunity for all to grow in faith, to renew and review our lives. It is also a time of personal prayer. I strongly encourage all parishioners to make good use of this opportunity and to make a really huge effort to come to the mission services. It may cause disruption to television programmes and other things but on this occasion I am asking you to prioritise and see this as very important. All Parish groups and committee meetings are cancelled this week and priority is given to the mission services. Do please pray for the success of the mission and come along. Bring a friend, give someone a lift if you can – make it a special time of grace and growth in the Parish and in your personal life.
