Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. It is a relatively new celebration in the Church's calendar, beginning in the 20th Century. Its meaning is that Jesus Christ is the Lord of all things, is the King of everything and rules over every part of the universe and over every aspect of our own lives as individuals.

This special feast day was the inspiration of Pope Pius XI who was elected in 1922. Although the First World War had ended there was not an overwhelming sense of peace and tranquillity. Pessimism, a sense of helplessness compounded by hatred among the nations, was overwhelming. The time was ripe for the rise of tyrants, and rise they did. The festering philosophies of fascism, National Socialism (the Nazis) and communism began to rise. Pope Pius XI's predecessor, Pope Benedict XV, had warned about this prophetically in 1920 when he wrote, "There can be no stable peace or lasting treaties, though made after long and difficult negotiations and duly signed, unless there be a return of mutual charity to appease hate and banish enmity."

At this time, many aspects of Church teaching were thought of as out of date. Modern thinking allowed that, at most, Christ might be king in the private life of the individual, but certainly not in the public world. Some political regimes advocated the banishment of Jesus altogether, not only from society, but from the family as well. As nations were reborn and governments restructured, their foundations, policies and laws were often being fashioned without regard to Christian principles.

The new pope saw how much society was being dominated by this way of thinking and so constantly stressed the Kingship of Christ in the jubilee year of 1925. Hundreds of thousands of pilgrims went to Rome for the jubilee and on 11 December that year, Pope Pius added the feast of Christ the King to the Church calendar, writing:

'The rebellion of individuals and states against the authority of Christ has produced deplorable consequences ... the seeds of discord sown far and wide; those bitter enmities and rivalries between nations, which still hinder much the cause of peace; that insatiable greed which is so often hidden under a pretence of public spirit and patriotism, and gives rise to so many private quarrels; a blind and immoderate selfishness, making men seek nothing but their own comfort and advantage, and measure everything by these; no peace in the home, because men have forgotten or neglect their duty; the unity and stability of the family undermined; society, in a word, shaken to its foundations and on the way to ruin. We firmly hope, however, that the feast of the Kingship of Christ, which in the future will be yearly observed, may hasten the return of society to our loving Saviour.'

As we celebrate Jesus as the King of all things today, perhaps we can make a special intention to place him at the centre of our hearts and of everything in our lives.

God bless, Father Adrian

WORLD WIDE SYNOD OF THE CHURCH

Pope Francis has called a worldwide synod of the Catholic Church throughout the world for 2023. Put at its simplest, it is a consultation of Catholics to try and discern the way forward for the Church. It involves prayer, discussion, consultation and listening, at all levels in the Church for the next two years and then feeding the results back to the Pope as we embrace the Church of the future. We should be getting going on our consultation methods in the next two weeks and inviting parishioners to take part. The Pope is very enthusiastic about this and asks us to pray for its success in shaping the Church of the future.

"Alternative Gifts" this Christmas. St Mother Teresa of Calcutta said, "It is Christmas every time you let God love others through you." As part of Advent, we naturally reflect on our Christmas giving. Many charities now offer inventive and wonderful ways to support their work, as a gift to others – you can buy goats or bees, help preserve sections of rainforest, and much more. To help in your search for such gifts our Diocesan Caritas has brought a range of charity details all together on one page, and you will find it at: <https://www.caritasbrentwood.org/christmas/>
